NOTES OF THE GAME

Danny Moeller batted right-hande against Plank, and gave Barry a han grounder to handle.

When the first game started there weres than 200 persons in the stands.

The sun blasted its way through the clouds just as Plank cut loose with a wild pitch and helped the Nationals more a run.

Although Eddle Collins singled in the Athletics' opener with two gone. Will flams' accurate peg caught the speed; baserunner at the midway.

Umpire Egan called Groom out at first base in the Nationals' second inning when McInnis had his foot off the ba-six inches. John Henry, who was coach lar, protested so vigorously that he wal immediately chased to the cooler.

With the bases crowled and one gon in the Athletics' second. Mack sent Jacl Lapp in to hit for Egun. A line drive t Moeller retired Lapp, and when Bakes tried to score on the out he was natised at the plate.

Eddie Foster made a sweet running estch of Collins' foul fly near the third-base blaschers for the final out in the Athletics' third.

Griff shouted to Plank in the Na donale fifth when Gandil stepped up to lit. "Look out, Eddie, Chick is going to ow bridge" you. Just then it hapened, a line drive nearly ripped Plank's and off as be ducked to get out of the lay of the ball.
